

WILLIAM HUSSEY

House of Reps for Newcastle

Your Voice for Freedom of Choice at the Next Federal Election

I will fight for your democratic rights as follows:

- ✓ Put Newcastle back on the economic and political map.
- ✓ Oppose vaccine mandates, reverse the 'no jab, no job' policy and compensate mandate and policy casualties.
- ✓ Increase funding for the now almost non-existent mental health care services and save the vast majority of sufferers from their current fate, prison.
- ✓ Increase funding for drug and alcohol rehabilitation centres.
- ✓ Revamp the Department of Veterans Affairs system and compensate veterans on their return from war or war-like service.
- ✓ Reduce taxes for low income earners and ensure that money earned in Australia by multinational corporations is taxed in Australia to benefit Australians.

About William 'Bill' Hussey

Following a distinguished career in the Australian Regular Army and the Australian Special Air Service Regiment in the 1990s, Bill later attained degrees in science and law from the University of Newcastle, while volunteering with the Army Reserve at the same time. He has been practising law since 2003, first as a solicitor and later as a barrister, in Dubbo, Newcastle, Sydney and regional areas, specialising in criminal law. Bill believes that the two-party political system has failed; that both parties no longer represent Australians.

"The state and federal bureaucracies have grown too large and Australians are no longer able to undertake any activity without some form of government interference. I believe in 'small government' that should serve the people, not the other way around."
